

Sample Club Mandate

Trin n' Tea

Club Mandate for 2009-2010

Date Proposed: September 17, 2009

The Trinity College Tea Appreciation Society, colloquially named Trin n' Tea, will provide an opportunity for Trinity students to learn, sample, and appreciate a wide assortment of hot aromatic beverages brewed by steeping leaves and leaf buds in hot water. Membership will be open and gratis to all students of the University of Trinity College. The executive will consist of a president, a secretary, a treasurer, and a first year rep. They will formally meet once a month for executive meetings. General Meetings will be held weekly; they will be themed with a choice encouraged to contribute their impressions. Joint meetings with other Trinity discussion clubs will be actively pursued.

Club Budgets

For club budgets, find and fill out the Budget Request Form. You can find a Sample Club Budget there as well.

Once completed, please email the budget to the tcmtreasurer@gmail.com

You must attend the Finance Committee at which your budget is being reviewed. Failing to do so will result in your budget not being considered.
